JOYVIN®

Rabbi Shlomo Itzhaki, commonly known by the acronym Rashi, was a French Rabbi in the eleventh century when he wrote a comprehensive commentary on both the Talmud and the Tanakh. In addition to writing the quintessential Talmud commentary, included in every printing since the original pressing in the sixteenth century, Rashi is believed to have been a vintner, keeping pristine vineyards, producing his own wine and possibly selling it as well. Today, he lends his name to Rashi Wine, an Italian based kosher winery with additional production in New York and California. These wines are perfect for a large kiddush at your shabbos table, or if you're just in the mood for something light and sweet.

The Bartenura Winery was named in his honor, in tribute to his Italian heritage, combining his greatness with the storied heritage of Italian winemaking. The wines have been sourced from all over the greatest regions of Italy, in pursuit of bringing the best Italy has to offer.

Domaine du Castel

Born in cosmopolitan Alexandria and educated in England, Italy and Switzerland, winemaker Eli Ben Zaken moved to Israel, first working in agriculture and later in the restaurant business. Eli had no formal winemaking education; when he had to decide whether or not to turn Domain du Castel from a hobby into a formal business, he was faced with a formidable challenge.

Eli recalled how a sentiment voiced by Winston Churchill was very apt at this time, as he felt as though he "were walking with Destiny, and that all my past life had been but a preparation for this hour and for this trial ... I was sure I should not fail" (Winston Churchill, May 1940).

Domain du Castel's goal is simple: strive to make classic and elegant wines.

In the heart of the Holy Land, 980m above sea level and surrounded by the Judean hills, lies the ancient city of Hebron, resting place of the Biblical Patriarchs and Matriarchs. With its climate influenced by the mountainous location, it is an ideal site for grape cultivation and wine production. Since biblical times, Hebron is mentioned as a grape-growing and wine cultivation region. Hebron Heights Winery was established with a deep love of the Land of Israel and a vision of establishing vineyards to produce fine wines in the heart of the Judean hills. Originally from North Africa, they share a passion for viniculture and a deep admiration for their illustrious forebears who produced wine in Morocco. The winery produces strictly kosher wines and accords great importance and respect to the link between the wines and the history and geography of Israel - reflected in the Biblical names of our wines and their distinctive label designs

Jerusalem Mountain Vineyards

The community settlement of Psagot is located on the peaks of the Benjamin region mountains, overlooking the Wadi Kelt basin, the Jerico Valley and the Dead Sea. In the 1890s, the Berg family settled here and planted vineyards on the eastern side. In doing so, caves were discovered in which an olive press and wine press from the Second Holy Temple era were uncovered.

Winemaker Yaakov Berg takes an interest in every aspect of the winemaking process and Josh Hexter has been making wine since the harvest of 2001. Josh has garnered the respect of some of the world's most esteemed critics and has won medals for his winemaking in many international competitions.

Elite Arak is a traditional Israeli arak distilled by Joseph Gold & Sons. It's a clear, anise-flavored spirit usually served with water and ice — where it turns milky white (the classic arak louche).

It's mostly appreciated by fans of classic anise spirits. If you enjoy liquorice-type flavours or alternative Mediterranean spirits, you'll likely find it traditional and authentic. For those less into liquorice/anise, the flavour can be polarising, since arak's taste is very distinctive (shared across all traditional araks).
